Dear Mark

ILM Level 7 Certificate in Executive Coaching and Mentoring

I am delighted to inform you that you have passed your final assignment, 'Reflecting on your own ability to perform effectively as a coach or mentor practicing at a senior level', with an excellent mark of 94%. You have therefore achieved the ILM Level 7 Certificate in Executive Coaching and Mentoring, congratulations!

Your mark sheet is enclosed which shows your detailed feedback and results.

We always look forward to being able to formally present Certificates, given the current circumstances it may not be possible to meet in some time. We would be pleased to present you with your Certificate at one of our Coaching Network events. Our next event will be on the 26th September, (it is looking like this will be held online), the provisional topic for the seminar is Systemic Coaching. The event following this will be on the 28th November for which we hope to be able to meet in person. Could you please keep these dates in your diary? We will be in touch with further details once available.

ILM have temporarily suspended the delivery of Certificates due to the current circumstances, if you would prefer we can deliver your Certificate to you once it arrives with us.

Going forward, maintaining the high standards that you have achieved will be critical, key to this is CPD and coaching supervision. We provide group supervision as well as a one-to-one supervision service; we also deliver training for those wanting to become a qualified Coach Supervisor.

Once again, congratulations on your achievement. Thank you for choosing British School of Coaching, and now I hope you will become an active member of the alumni.

On behalf of the team at British School of Coaching we wish you every success in the future.

Yours Sincerely,
